We are saying farewell to Summer with an amazing performance from the one-of-a-kind Annie Moses Band on Sunday, August 27 right here at First Baptist Church!

This Emmy award-winning family of composers, singers, and Julliard trained musicians bring a style all their own that blends folk and classical music in an exhilarating live performance. God has gifted this wonderful family and they are using those gifts to bless others. So mark your calendars and join us for worship on Sunday morning, then come early and get a great seat for the evening concert! ## MISSIONS LEADERS NEEDED

"After the study of God's word comes the study of the fields. Then people pray. Then they give." Annie Armstrong
First Baptist needs mission leaders for preschool, children, youth and adult groups. The Great Commission tells us we are to make disciples, baptize and teach them to obey all His commands. And His command tells us to go. Prayerfully consider how God may use you in a leadership role in these mission education groups. For more information, please contact Cameron Ford or Wanda Walker.
