THE FIRST EDITION

A WORD FROM OUR PASTOR

VOTE ON 7-28

The Building Committee recommends First Baptist Church approve Phase One of the facility master plan and continue developing detail designs for this Phase One facility.

Members who will be out of town on July 28th can stop by the church office to vote confidentially. If a ballot is picked up for a member who can't get to the office, it needs to be returned by the morning of July 28th.

First Baptist Church, being led by our Building Committee, has prayed, planned and presented how we can invest in a new campus to grow future ministries for our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ in Mt. Washington and the surrounding region! Now, it is our opportunity to cast a vote of affirmation for the plans this Sunday, July 28, 2013 at 8:15, 9:35 and 11:00 a.m. worship services. A secret ballot vote will be taken at the conclusion of each worship service. Join our church family in experiencing this historical day of decision on 7-28.

Let us do the following:

- 7-28) Mark your calendar for attendance.
- 7-28) Encourage each other to be present.
- 7-28) Understand every member will have an opportunity to participate in this affirmation of the future.
- 7-28) Celebrate the history of our church as we embrace the future loving Jesus and being devoted to sharing His love.

Blessings,
Bro. Billy

 Three interesting books by Laura Frantz are now in our church library. They all contain much about the history of Kentucky dating back to the late 1700's.

 This book tells about everyday life in 1777, including contact with Indians and the people living in the fort.

Courting Morrow Little
 Morrow Little has lived in Pennsylvania with an aunt several years since most of her family were killed by Indians. She's returning to "Kentucke" to be with her father who is a minister and conducts services in the nearby fort on Sundays. The fort also provides social life for those nearby. She has several admirers and has a difficult decision in choosing the right person.

The Colonel's Lady is really Roxanna Rowan who has come from Virginia to join her father who is a soldier at Fort Endeavor. On her arrival she learns her father has been killed in battle. She replaces him as the scrivener which keeps her in the heart of the fort and means a very busy life, filled with heartache but also joy. Come to the library and check them out! Verneasa Jasper
