ELIZA BROADUS STATE MISSIONS OFFERING

Jesus spent his earthly ministry walking the streets, ministering to the poor, desolate and despised. He saw needs and he filled them. He preached God's kingdom to the masses. He sent out His disciples to do the same.

After Christ's death, resurrection, and ascension, His disciples received power from the Father and continued to proclaim the gospel. The apostle Paul traveled around the known world, sharing the gospel and planting churches. Others became Christ followers and they, too, were passionate proclaimers of Jesus as the Way, the Truth, and the Life.

Times of persecution came to the followers of Christ. Peter wrote to "the temporary residents of the Dispersion" to encourage their faith, to encourage them to be ready and live ready to share the gospel and do good to others, no matter what happened. "And who will harm you if you are passionate for what is good? But even if you should suffer for righteousness, you are blessed. Do not fear what they fear or be disturbed, but set apart the Messiah as Lord in your hearts, and always be ready to give a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you. However, do this with gentleness and respect, keeping your conscience clear, so that when you are accused, those who denounce your Christian life will be put to shame. For it is better to suffer for doing good, if that should be God's will, than for doing evil." (1 Peter 3:13-17 HCSB).

Always be ready. Kentucky Baptists strive to be a living embodiment of this admonition in words and actions. This year, public school children are being reached with the gospel of Christ because a ministry is willing and ready to teach them. Right now, homeless families are being fed and their souls being drawn to the Savior because homeless shelters are ready and equipped to meet their physical and spiritual needs. Because Kentucky Baptists live ready, men, women and children are being shown the love of Christ across our state. Your giving allows Kentucky ministries to reach others for Christ. How will you help and be ready...live ready!

Our goal is $9,000

Given to date: $872.00

- It is designed for the many people who have a current or past relationship with a person who has a life-controlling problem.
- It emphasizes the need we all have for each other.
- It helps people focus on Christ rather than on the problem.
- It serves as a powerful evangelistic tool by providing a way to minister to people's felt needs and then pointing them to Christ.
